The summit is organized for School/District Teams - superintendents, principals, CTE directors, business/industry partners, postsecondary partners, lead Teachers, counselors – focused on improving student success by connecting challenging career pathways with a college ready academic core linking secondary, postsecondary and workplace learning.

Examine how career pathways can get more students to graduate college ready, career ready or both and how career pathways align with New York's plan for the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA). Participants will learn from school and district leaders from across the state and nation and from national experts about how schools are increasing student success through implementation of intellectually demanding career pathways.

Sponsored by the New York State Education Department and the Southern Regional Education Board
