NEW NYSED REGULATIONS

“A MIDDLE SCHOOL TO HIGH SCHOOL CONTINUUM”

Don't Miss the 8th Annual Collaborative CTE Conference!

7:30 a.m.—2:45 p.m.

Sondra and David S. Mack Student Center, North Campus

This conference is designed for: Superintendents, District Administrators, School Board Members, Middle and High School Principals, Curriculum Leaders, Business Leaders, School-Business Partners, and Teachers on Long Island, in Westchester County, and in New York City.

New NYSED (New York State Education Department) regulations encourage districts to examine their middle school programs with the goal of connecting middle school instruction to high school pathways. With this exploration, students will be prepared for successful futures.

The NYSED regulations create flexibility to re-imagine and design unique middle school experiences, to explore exciting CTE models, and to provide guidance as schools move to program development and implementation.

Welcome: Dr. Robert R. Dillon, District Superintendent, Nassau BOCES

Introductory Remarks: Roger Tilles, Member, NYS Board of Regents

Featured Keynote: “20/20 Foresight: Why Talk About 2030 Now?”

- Bill Daggett, Ed.D., Founder and Chairman
International Center for Leadership in Education

Featured Speakers:

- Dawn B. Mastroianni, CTE Technical Assistance Center of New York, Senior Consultant
“The New Middle School Regulation: Its Instructional Impact”
- NYSED Representative
